

FRÉDÉRIC MAGNIEN

GRANDS VINS DE BOURGOGNE

RÉGIONAL BOURGOGNE Chardonnay

GEOGRAPHIC DESCRIPTION

Cultivated by the Burgundians for centuries, Chardonnay is the source of Fame great white wines. It is the only and unique variety of all great white wines in Burgundy. This variety is originally from the village of Chardonnay in Saône-et-Loire.

GEOLOGICAL DESCRIPTION

This grape grows pretty golden clusters as small as Pinot Black, but more elongated and less tight.

Growing up on a fairly deep brown soil typical of the appellation, grapes of this parcel express the essential qualities of a white Burgundy. This wine is a blend from plots located in Côte de Nuits.

FOOD & WINE AGREEMENT

This wine accompanies perfectly a chicken liver terrine.
